50X1-HUM

1. A young Rumanian woman whose mother is a Russian emigre and whose father is under arrest recently attempted to secure admittance to the Polytechnical Institute in Bucharest, but was refused permission to enter the school because of the present status of her father. She has now enrolled in the Maxim Gorki Institute in Bucharest, where she studies the Russian language, Marxism-Leninist economics, the "cultural" history of Russia, and similar subjects.

2. The student hopes that after one year of such "cultural indoctrination" her request for admission to the Polytechnical Institute will be granted. Attendance at the Maxim Gorki Institute permits this young woman to receive a ration card and legal permission to occupy living quarters. She is now considered to be a "valuable citizen acquiring cultural indoctrinations.
